

Carey is recognized in gold tier by World Trademark Review

The international publication recognized Carey in its recent WTR 1000 ranking as one of the best firms in Chile in the trademark practice area.

World Trademark Review is a British publication that covers the intellectual property practice area in 70 jurisdictions globally.